Charlottesville, Va., Special.—Rev. R. J. Perkins of Hinton West Virginia, who has been assisting in conducting the revival at the First Baptist church, left last week for his home. The meetings are continued this week, and the pastor, Rev. Quarles will be assisted by Rev. Hawkins of Gordonsville, and other pastors of the city. The number of converts reported to date is about 35. At the Mt. Zion Baptist church the revival continues with great success. Up to the present time about 45 converts are reported. The Y. M. C. A. is becoming the center of attraction for our young men on Sunday evenings. A good number was present last Sunday evening. The Bible lesson was "Sowing the Seed" which was interestingly and instructively discussed. We hope to be able to report before very long that our rooms are not sufficient to accommodate the young men at these meetings. Next Sunday's Bible study is "Unchastity and Its Cure," St. Mark 1, 21: 34. All men are invited to come. Rev. E. Duke Venture left Saturday to attend the M. E. Church Conference which is in session at Baltimore, Md. Mr. Adam Whipps is home from Washington, D. C. Messrs. W. E. Bowles, A. W. Bullock and J. Christian left last week for Hot Springs, Va. Miss Bettie James left this week for Richmond, Va. Mrs. Gertrude Heiskell who has been teaching at Free Union Virginia, has closed her school for the session and is home again. Mr. J. A. Kennie of Leonard Medical College arrived Monday in company with Mr. J. J. Quarles, of Louisa, Va., who is a recent graduate in the Medical Department of the class of 1900. Mr. Eugene Dickerson, A. B., M. D., a graduate of the college department of the V. N. and C. I., Petersburg, and of the medical department of Shaw University of the class of 1900, arrived home Tuesday. He brings with him one of the medals for excellency which is the second medal he has won at the Medical College. Messrs. Noah Jackson, Charles Goodloe and Robert Backner who have been quite sick are all much improved. Mr. W. H. Dabney, Manager of the Richmond Beneficial Insurance Company branch office, is having a very nice restaurant fitted up on West Main street, across from the Odd Fellow's Hall. He will open up in a few days and solicits the patronage of the public. Quite a grand entertainment is being planned by Mrs. W. H. Dabney to be given Easter under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at the Opera House. The American is still on sale at Pollard and Noble's or can be had from A. F. Angel at the University.

At St. Paul A. M. E. Church.

At the St. Paul A. M. E. Church, 8th street southwest, between D and E, Sunday, March 25, 1900, there will be three special sermons delivered by three of the most able pulpit orators of the city. Albert Johnson, pastor Metropolitan Church, M street northwest, will fill the pulpit. At 7.30 Rev. A. D. Olley Holder will preach; subject, "Dry Bones."
